

Does your organization have a wellness program?

YES, but

...employees are not actively participating

Working on Wellness

gives you the tools to create tailored wellness programming that increases employee participation and ownership

NOT YET, because

...I don't know where to start

Working on Wellness

will help you create a step-by-step road map for your workplace wellness program

...I don't know if it is working

Working on Wellness

gives you the skills to track and evaluate the benefits of your wellness program to both your employees and your business

...I don't have enough funds

Working on Wellness

can provide up to $10,000 in funding for your wellness program & prepare eligible organizations to receive an additional $10,000 tax credit

...employees show little interest

Working on Wellness

can provide a better understanding of the health needs and interests of your employees & the tools to increase interest

Regardless of where you are on your journey to worksite wellness, Working on Wellness can help your organization gain a competitive edge, attract and retain a talented workforce by helping you create a sustainable program to help employees live happier and healthier lives.
